

Large Commercial Law Firm:

We expect a broad range of skills from our fee earners, not just technical ability. We consider commercial awareness as a pre-requisite to becoming a trusted advisor. Our view is that legal education should include a business element as early as possible, so that our trainees join us with an understanding of how our clients operate and how they are funded.